"The round crib is a total space saver! And the pale walls and simple, graphic rug mean that I can introduce bright, colorful elements (like this framed Helen Ramsaran print) without it being overwhelming."

MICHELLE & LOLA

"The idea was to convert a walk-in closet into a small jewel box, hence the Tiffany blue. A Murphy bed-style changing table was painted to match the walls, so it essentially disappears when not in use. The sheepskin rug makes things extra cozy."
—MICHELLE RUBEL, events manager
